Classroom Bill of Rights & Responsibilities

Students' RIGHTS

Students' RESPONSIBILITIES

We have the RIGHT to be safe at school.

we have the RESPONSIBILITY not to hurt others with our actions or words.

We have the RIGHT to supplies and materials for our learning.

We have the RESPONSIBILITY to take care of our materials.

We have the RIGHT to have our own space in our classroom. We have the RESPONSIBILITY to keep our space neat and orderly.

We have the RIGHT to have lunch at school.

We have the RESPONSIBILITY to use manners at the table while eating our lunch.

We have the RIGHT to learn new things.

We have the RESPONSIBILITY to work quietly as we learn and not disturb others while they are learning.

We have the RIGHT to share our ideas and ask questions in our classroom.

We have the RESPONSIBILITY to wait our turn to speak and listen to others' ideas when they speak.

We have the RIGHT to have a caring teacher to help us learn. We have the RESPONSIBILITY to listen to our teacher as she teaches us.

We have the RIGHT to participate in classroom activities.

We have the RESPONSIBILITY to stay on task and do our best in all classroom activities.

We have the RICHT to have a playground and recess We have the RESPONSIBILITY to play safely and follow the rules.

To enjoy your rights you must follow your responsibilities!