

How to use this resource:

At the beginning of each month, students start with 10 citizenship points.

When a student makes a poor choice, flips a card, breaks a rule, etc... (whatever you choose), they need to get the citizenship point chart and cross off one point.

At the end of the month, any student with points left over receives a small treat.